A k We commend the following definition of "Politeness is kindness, kindly expressed,"

The aubject may be amplified and elaborated, but the Dr. has the root of the matter, from which all true policeness springs and has its source. His definition is a test to which every action, or expression may be brought and tried. There are a great many persons who pride themselves upon their politeness, who have but a small portion of its easen; they may have breeding or training, as house, or dancing bear, or monkey has, but this is not politeness, nor very nearly. related to it

The spot is elevated shove the innundations of the river, from whose margin the ground ria-a gradually, and is based on a thick stratum of rock, which affords the moze admirable materials for building. Above and below, along the river, was an a undance of timber, and to the ture. west an unlimited expanse of fertile prairies;

while on the east were the rich plains of Illinois. A short distance below were the lead mines, which have for half a century past, afforded a valuable article of trade : a few mules above the town; the Missours and Illinois rivers united their waters with those of the Mississippl. extending the channels of intercourse through a vast interior region; and this obscure spot in the heart of a great continent, and far distant from the ocean was visited by the birch cannes from Quebec; as well-es by the barges from New Orleans." Its local situation is therefore, very beautiful.

St. Louis was incorporated as a city in 1829. The city limits include an area of about half a mile in width, and a mile and a half in length, parallel with the river. From Mr. Huston Struson of Georgetown, Mo.

I has is to certify that my wife has been sorely afflicted with the Salt Rheum, at times, from a child, and often for months in succession, so that she was unable to be a-Coccar thu tune she made use of almost every thing which had been recommended to her in good for the complaint but found little relief and had formed the conclusion that there was no holp for her. In 1837, she and her child (air mentis oil) were so hadly afflicted that they had but little cast, day or night, the child being almost-powered with sores, and had been in this state for several mooths. A brother of mine, knowing the distress of my family, ally sed me by all means to make trial of Trufing's Compound for Salt Rheim. Agreeably to his advise, I purchased a quantity of it, and applied it as directed, and I can safely say that in two or throst days, they sound great relief, and in four week's time, the disorder entirely dissupposed. Since that, they have been free from all lumers whatever, and chieve good health, and I have reason to believe are perfectly cyred. I have lost two children clusion that there was no holp for her. In 1837, she and to believe are perfectly cured. I have lost two children with the same complaint. Had the same medicine been applied to the ..., I have good reason to believe that they would now have been living. I value the Compound highly us a remedy for that awful disease, and with pleasure would recommend it to all who may be afflicted with it HUST ON STINSON.
